

SUNDAY 21 NOVEMBER 2021 - PARIS-VINCENNES PRIX D'AMERIQUE RACES ZETURF QUALIF #1 – PRIX DE BRETAGNE : WHERE IT ALL BEGINS

The Prix d'Amérique Races ZEturf 2021-2022 will begin with Qualif # 1 – Prix de Bretagne, Sunday November 21 at the Paris-Vincennes Hippodrome. From the start, it's a magnificent five-star cast that awaits sports lovers at the highest level.

The 17 competitors of the Prix d'Amérique Races ZEturf Qualif # 1 – Prix de Bretagne will have one major goal: to finish in the top three in order to win a ticket for the three Finals: Prix d'Amérique Legend Race, Prix de France Speed Race and Paris Marathon Race Prize. However, this Group II will have other exciting challenges, including the opportunity to judge the state of form of some of the current champions.

Above all, it will allow us to see the phenomenal Face Time Bourbon again in the capital. The two-time winner of the Prix d'Amérique Legend Race, in 2020 and 2021, combines superlatives as he aligns victories and exploits. A winner in Italy on his most recent outing, Sulky's partner Eric Raffin got his revenge on the excellent Zacon Gio, who had beaten him twice previously. A Zacon Gio who will be present on Sunday for an explosive fourth round! This trotter born in Italy has been evolving since early October in France with Jean-Michel Bazire. The great trainer will have three assets in this Qualif # 1: Ganay de Banville, whom he will lead, Rebella Matters, associated with Christophe Martens, and therefore Zacon Gio, entrusted to Alexandre Abrivard.

Diable de Vauvert, the defending champion, will also take the start, benefiting from a sparkling physical condition. His two recent successes plead in his favor. Chica de Joudes, accustomed to this kind of confrontation at the top, Fakir du Lorault, often unlucky last year in such a category, Feliciano, who holds serious titles, and, Etonnant, winner of the Prix de Paris Marathon Race, are as many outsiders to follow closely. Thanks to such talented protagonists, this first meeting brings together all the elements to offer a fabulous show!
