

PRIX DE BELGIQUE – AMÉRIQUE RACES PMU Q#6 : LAST CHANCE TO QUALIFY FOR THE FINALS

Tensions will be running high in the Prix de Belgique - Amérique Races PMU Q#6. The champions of harness racing will battle it out for one of the last three qualifying places for the Finals of the Amérique Races PMU competition, which includes the Prix d'Amérique Legend Race, the Sulky world championship.

Amongst the 18 trotting stars lining up at the start, many will be aiming to finish in the top three and claim one of the three final qualifying tickets for the Finals of the Amérique Races PMU, namely the Prix d'Amérique Legend Race, the eagerly-awaited world championship scheduled for Sunday 28th January, the Prix de France Speed Race (11th February) and the Prix de Paris Marathon Race (25th February). Meanwhile, Izoard Védaquais has put in one excellent performance after another, finishing second in two previous Amérique Races PMU qualifiers.

Among the contenders, Inmarosa is set to demonstrate her prowess with compelling results, casting a shadow of concern over her competitor Idao de Tillard, who will be absent on Sunday but is still the favourite for the Prix d'Amérique Legend Race. Constantly in top physical condition, Laurent-Claude Abrivard's protégé will have high intentions. Italiano Vero, third in the Prix d'Amérique Legend Race 2023, Hail Mary, a Swedish crack partnered with five-time Sulky d'Or winner Eric Raffin, Hohneck, winner of the Elitloppet, Idéal Ligneries, almost unbeatable, Go On Boy, unlucky at the last race, and Ganay de Banville, gifted, all have a chance of winning the precious prize to the final.
